

Oh, my dearest darling,
the absolute supreme Shri Krishna!

Since eternity I have endured uncountable sufferings and I am suffering now because I was ignorant of Your grace. Committing sins lifetime after lifetime, my heart has become so impure from material associations that even though I learned from your loving Saints that You are waiting for me with open arms to embrace me and you were benevolently looking towards me to grace me, I failed to surrender myself to You.

Oh refuge of destitutes! Who can know You without Your grace?

Oh form of kindness Shri Krishna! Oh redeemer of sinful souls, make me Yours with a glance of Your causeless Grace.

Oh Ocean of Love! I have no worldly ambition, nor do I seek liberation, my only desire is to love You selflessly.

Oh Lord! Keeping Your reputation in mind (that you are causelessly merciful, and the purifier of sinners) do not disappoint your fallen, pitiable child

Oh treasure of my life! I have suffered enough, and now I realize that this life without Your love is worse than death. Therefore I beg of You again and again, Bless me with alms of Your Love.....

Jai Shri Radhey
