

Pad Kirtan:

“Udho! Kahiyo Hari samujhay”

From “Prem Ras Madira” (“Nectar of Divine Love”)

by Jagadguru Shri Kripalu ji Maharaj

ऊधो ! कहियो हरि समुझाय ।

Udho ! Kahiyo Hari samujhay.

(The Gopis of Braj are sending a message to their Beloved Krishna through Uddhava) “Oh, Uddhava, tell our Beloved...”

हम सब उनहिं न कबहुँ बिसरिहैं, वे चाहे बिसराय ।

Ham sab unahin na bisarihain, ve chahe bisaraya.

“...that we will never forget Him, even though He may forget us.”

वे मेरे प्रियतम, प्राणेश्वर, हम अबला असहाय ।

Ve mere priyatam, praneshvar, ham abala asahaya.

“He is our Beloved as well as the Lord of our life.

We are completely dependent on Him as our sole support.”

हम सब भई सनातन चेरी, वे चाहे ठुकराय ।

Ham sab bhain sanatan cheri, ve chahe thukaraya.

“He may deny us, but we are His eternal servants.”

चितवत पंथ रैन-दिन देइहौं, अगनित जनम बिताय ।

Citavat panth rain-din deihaun, aganit janam bitaya.

“If we have to, we will spend innumerable lives watching the path for our Beloved's return.”

पै 'कृपालु' को भय पिय ! जग सों, तव परतीति न जाय ।

Pai 'Kripalu' ko bhaya piya! Jag son, tava parteeti na jaya.

Jagadguru Shri 'Kripalu' ji says, “Oh Beloved Krishna, the Gopis are afraid of only one thing. If you don't return to them, the ignorant people of this world may call you cruel, not understanding the mysterious nature of Your causeless Grace.”
